

The Chief

1944

Oh Willard High forever,
Our Alma Mater dear,
We crown thee fairest High School,
Thy name, we love to hear;
In long, long years, remember,
Our hearts will cling to thee,
Oh Willard High forever,
Our praises to thee.

LAUNCHED BUT NOT ANCHORED

F O R E W O R D

As we leave harbor for the last time let us pause to recall the memories we have experienced during the last twelve years. There have been stormy voyages and calm and pleasant ones. Although many obstacles of hard work, of poor grades or disagreements have confronted us, we like to think more of the fun, the laughter and friendships that have helped us reach our goal.

Now as we pull away from Willard High for the last time, we look forward to the greatest journey we have ever experienced. We know many fierce waves and dark clouds will hinder us but with determination we shall make this journey a happy one, a journey that will make our dreams come true.

From the hills to the valleys, and from the mountains to the sea, and from the cities to the farms, may we raise a voice of determined resolve to free the world forever from the cruelty of war and tragic results—a world re-made and dedicated to the life, liberty, and happiness of the humblest.

As seniors we realize more than ever the important part our school board has played to make our school a better institution. They have always planned for our comfort, welfare, and happiness. We give our thanks to these gentlemen.

We wish to thank Mr. Dale
W. Gates, as our superintendent, for his cheerful guidance, consideration, and helping hand, which have made our life here a pleasant one

ADMINISTRATION

To Mr. Wiebe, our principal, we wish to express our appreciation for his patience and his needed help.
His ideas of fairness and sportsmanship will always be remembered by all.

JUNIORS

This is the junior class, who, in their enthusiasm for the unusual and untried, have contributed much to our school. Having participated wholeheartedly in athletics and music, they presented a delightful comedy entitled, "Lindy Lou," which brought to light many hidden talents.

This class has proven that they are fully capable of assuming their responsibilities as seniors.

These freshmen have made themselves famous in the last few years. They were always seen at the swimming pool, they seem to adore butch haircuts, and they are members of a first-rate reserve basketball team. In February they sponsored a bang-up skating party for the whole school. Truly, they are a promising class.

FIRST ROW: Lyndel Coder, Dorothy Brooks, Bettie Bevill, Ruth Fisher, Margaret Covert, Mary Camiscioni, Dorothy Hafner, Thomas Hurlehy, Richard Hahler, Donald Hutchinson.

SNOWBOUND

ACTIVITIES

Madeline Smith, Jeannine Hartzel, Joseph Coburn, Peggy Bevier, Betty Stillions.

FIRST ROW: George Yacob, Merle Frye, Allen Albright, Walter Lindsey, Jr., Edward Houghton, Raymond Black, Charles Piller, William Coburn, Coach Peter A. Wiebe.

Our team, though victorious in only two games, was more than victorious in playing spirit and sportsmanship. They carried on through mud, rain, snow and freezing weather but never gave the audience a dull moment. Even when the odds were against them, they fought like Trojans. The boys never gave up fighting, and the Coach always backed them to the limit. Captain Eddie Houghton led his team to victory in blinding snow the night before he entered into the service of our country. Charles Piller was made honorary captain.
